

DUCKLINGS—In and around the new swimming pool at Huntington Hills, a group of neighborhood children find a

Unique Club Provides Pool For Huntington Hills

By FRANCES PALMER

A YOUNG man from Huntington Hills walked into a local bank and said he wanted to open a new account. "In what name, please?" inquired the bank official. "In the name of the Hammer, Grog & Hat Club," answered the young man.

The bank official's eyebrows rose to his hairline. "In what name . . . ?" he stammered. "The Hammer, Grog & Hat Club of Huntington Hills," his client replied firmly.

The account was opened with due dignity. Moneys deposited go for the building and upkeep of a swimming pool in Huntington Hills and for added fire protection in that area.

When a group of Hills families decided to build the pool they knew children would enjoy it. But they didn't foresee how much. Now, according to reports from parents, there is only one complaint the youngsters have.

"MUST we go to the seashore? We can swim right here. MUST we go to the mountains? We like our pool better than those cold lakes."

How did it get its name? From the owners:

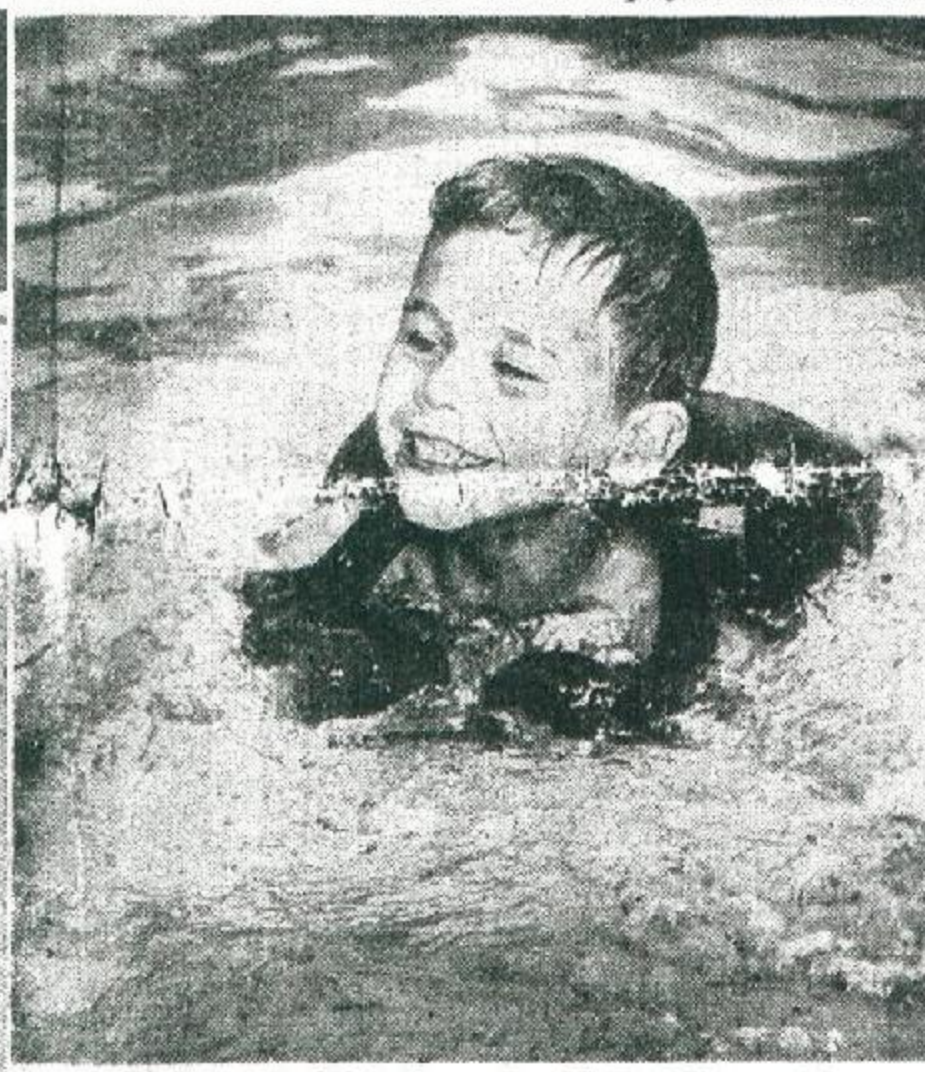

- H—D. S. Hall
- A—C. E. Angle
- M—A. S. Miller
- M—J. W. McFarlane
- E—C. A. Elwood
- R—J. A. Rodgers
- G—J. C. Golan
- R—J. J. Rusling
- O—K. C. Ogden
- G—A. K. Gould
- H—J. S. Hodges
- A—W. S. Allen
- T—R. M. Tuthill

cooling spot for a warm day. Left to right, they are Bailey Ogden, Lee Allen, Jimmy Allen, Ann Angle, Terry

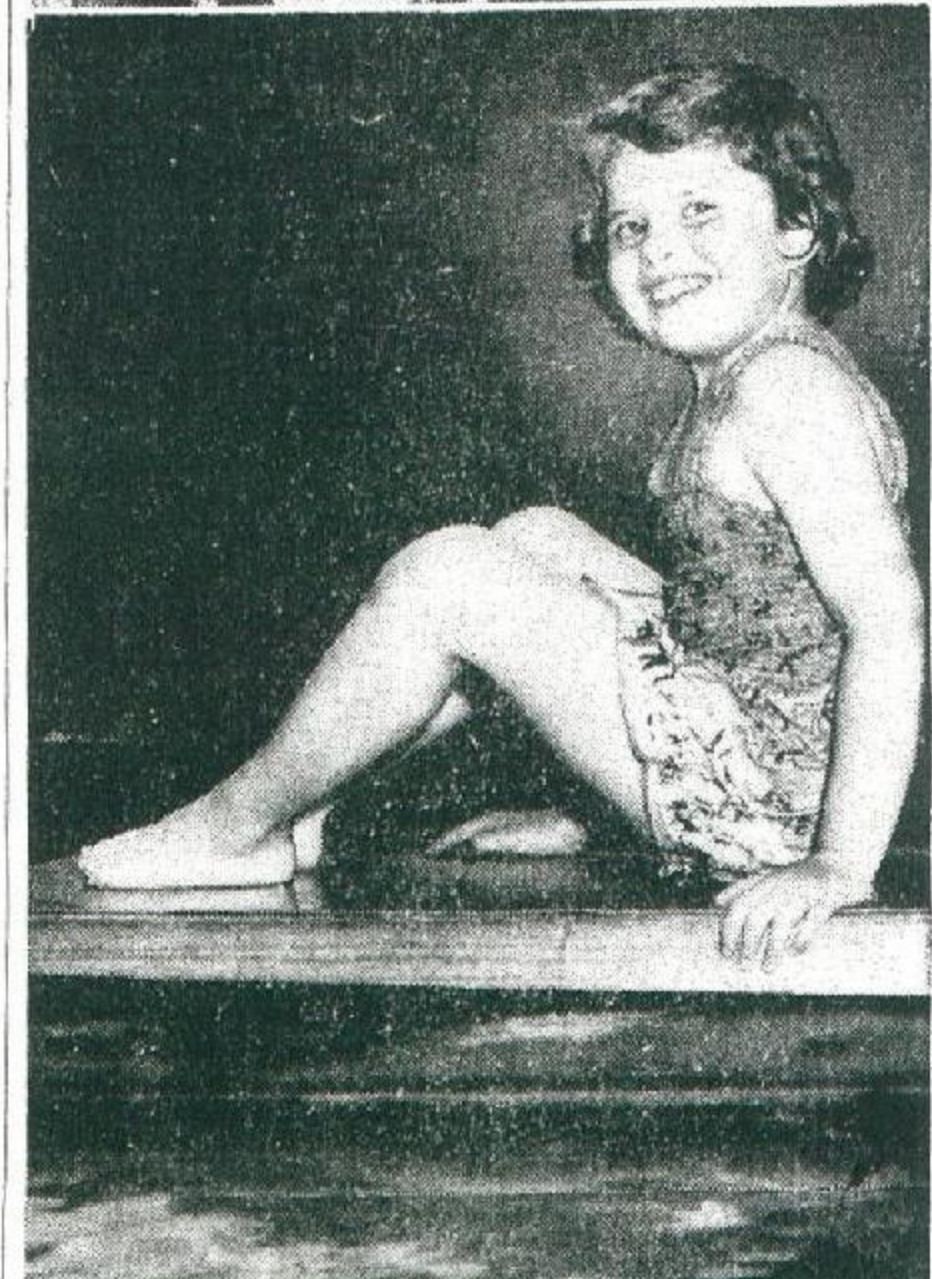

Angle and Sally Allen. The pool was completed last year but only in time for a brief autumn dip, just before frost.

ACTION-CAMERA—Allen Gould, left, and Terry Angle, wrestle for a big ball in the Huntington Hills swimming pool. Picture at right shows David Tuthill, working up some speed to see how fast he can make it to pool's end.

MERMAID—Lorie Rusling, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee J. Rusling of Huntington Hills, watches others play in the pool after she has had her dip. People of all ages enjoy a neighborhood place for a refreshing swim.